

GSAC

May 2016

Summer Residential Governor's School

- 24 students accepted
 - Academics – 11 students
 - Visual/Performing Arts – 4 students
 - Foreign Language – 9 students

Collaborations this Year

- Social Studies Office/Gifted Services
 - Document Based Questions (DBQ) Training – 2 full days (Dec and April)
 - Follow Up Training after implementing a unit – (April – 22 teachers)
 - All middle and high RTGs were training
 - Gunston (5 teachers)
 - Jefferson (5 teachers)
 - Kenmore (3 teachers)
 - Swanson (8 teachers)
 - Williamsburg (6 teachers)
 - HB Woodlawn (1 teacher)
 - Wakefield (2 teachers)
 - W-L (3 teachers)
 - Yorktown (3 teachers)

Collaborations Continued

- Social Studies/Gifted Services

- 2 Summer Enrichment Programs for current 6th, 7th, and 8th grade students: Global Affairs and Democracy in Action
- Registration has been extended

Language Arts/Gifted Services

- Extended offer to middle school cluster teachers for Center for Gifted Education Summer Professional Institute
 - 2 days on William and Mary Language Arts curriculum
 - Plan to integrate ideas for cluster teachers to add depth and complexity to general education curriculum
 - Confirmed:
 - Kenmore (1 - 6th grade teacher & RTG)
 - Swanson (1 – 6th grade teacher; 1 – 7th grade teacher)
 - LA & Gifted Office and RTGs still actively recruiting other teachers for this opportunity
 - Will also have a one day training on Friday, July 1st

Title 1 Office/Gifted Services

- New Young Scholars Summer School
 - Two one week sessions for Drew Model students
 - Focusing on engineering and architecture
 - K-2
 - 3-5
- Young Scholars Course
 - Teachers from Drew took online course together
 - Plan to expand to another group next fall

Instructional Technology/Gifted Services

- All RTGs were given IPADS this year
- Summer Laureate redesign to infuse more technology/collaboration between offices to support this endeavor
- Plans to highlight technology integration on Digital APS

Special Education/Gifted Services

- 2e Committee website <http://www.apsva.us/Page/1841>
- Continue to update
- Feedback is welcome!

Coaching UVA

- Two RTGs attending this instructional coaching institute in July
 - Kevin Trainor, McKinley ES
 - Stephanie McIntyre, Glebe ES