BRINGING IT TOGETHER THROUGH TEACHING AND LEARNING

Authentic and engaging learning experiences focused on:

Critical thinking: reason effectively, use systems thinking, make judgments and decisions, solve problems

Creative thinking: think creatively, work creatively with others, implement innovations

Collaboration: ability to work effectively and respectfully with diverse teams, exercise flexibility, assume shared responsibility

Communication: articulate thoughts and ideas effectively, communicate for a range of purposes, use multiple media and technologies

Citizenship: build connections and value for interactions as a responsible and responsive citizen

Acceptable Use Policies

Acceptable Use Policies (AUP)

An AUP outlines how a district “expects its community members to behave with technology” and may include:

- A statement of the vision, philosophy, or mission to frame the intent of the AUP
- Alignment with any existing code of conduct (ethical and legal responsibilities)
- Clear definitions of acceptable use and unacceptable use
- Shared ownership and responsibility
- Safety and privacy

Acceptable Use Policies

Specific topics may include:

- Use of Network
- Internet Safety (privacy, inappropriate content, unwanted contact)
- Filtering and Monitoring
- Copyright and Ownership of Work
- Network Security and Privacy (student data)
- Disciplinary Action
- Digital Citizenship
- Social Media Usage

Policies and PIPs

Defining Policies and PIPs

Policy

- Principles of action
- Determined by the School Board
- Intended to shape decisions and actions
- Answers “what” and “why” questions
- Defines broad terms

Policy Implementation Procedures (PIPs)

- Procedural steps that APS follows to implement School Board policies
- Define management and operations of the school system in accordance with School Board policies
- Answer the “how”, “who”, and “when” questions
- Define specific operational terms

The School Board requested that APS update policies relating to student use of digital devices. Students in grades 2-12 are issued devices by APS. Several existing policies address this topic including:

- 20-2.210 Acceptable Use of Networked Information Resources
- 20-2.215 Acceptable Use of Social Media
- 30-2.3 Internet Privacy
- 45 Technology
- 45-2 Acceptable Use of Electronic Networked Resources & Internet Safety

Superintendent's Advisory Committee on Technology has reviewed policy 45-2 and has suggested edits.
